Section 9 Doctoral Examination Board

- (1) The examiners on the Doctoral Examination Board prepare the written reports, assess the dissertation and examine the oral defence.
- (2) A Doctoral Examination Board is formed for each doctoral proceeding.
- (3) The Doctoral Examination Board consists of a chairperson and two to three examiners, whereby the third examiner may also be appointed at a later stage of the proceedings. The chairperson and at least one examiner must be professorial members of the respective graduate school/center. The other examiner may also be a member of another higher education institution or university in Germany or abroad. In the case of a Doctoral Examination Board consisting of three examiners, two examiners may belong to another higher education institution or university in Germany or abroad. The chairperson cannot be an examiner at the same time.
- (4) At least one examiner must fulfil the requirements set out in Section 13 (1) sentence 1 no. 4 AVBayHIG or be a professor at a university (Universität).

(5) The following persons may be appointed as additional examiners

- a) Professors who are members of a graduate school/centre and meet all the requirements of Section 13 (2) AVBayHIG, but who do not yet have adequate experience in supervising doctorate proceedings and in the assessment of dissertations in accordance with Section 13 (1) sentence 1 no. 4a
- b) Professors at a university of applied sciences outside Bavaria that is eligible to award doctorates

(6) On appointment as examiner, the authorisation to examine for this doctorate proceeding is deemed confirmed.

(7) The supervisor may be appointed as examiner.

Section 10 Advisory Board of the Promotionszentrum

(1) The Advisory Board acts as an academic supervisory board and advises the Steering Committee on the strategic orientation of the Promotionszentrum and on quality assurance measures.

(2) The Advisory Board can also make suggestions to the Steering Committee for improving the doctoral proceedings.

(3) The Advisory Board consists of

- the vice presidents of the universities of applied sciences involved in the Promotionszentrum who are responsible for the DIT Graduate School
- two professors from other universities of applied sciences or universities (Universitäten) with convincing experience in supervising doctoral candidates/assessing doctoral projects who are also engaged in research activities that are thematically linked to the research questions central to the Promotionszentrum. These are appointed by the management of the Deggendorf Institute of Technology in consultation with the participating universities for a period of four years, whereby reappointment is possible. At least one of the two professors should belong to the gender under-represented in the Promotionszentrum.

(4) The Advisory Board shall meet at least once a year.

Section 11 Financing

The Promotionszentrum is financed by allocations from the funds for the core facilities of the partner universities. The Cooperation Agreement regulates the details.

Section Entry into force

These Statutes shall enter into force on 31 January 2024 in Kraft.

Issued based on the resolution of the Senate of the Deggendorf Institute of Technology dated 31 January 2024 and the approval of the President of the Deggendorf Institute of Technology dated 1 February 2024.
