LECTURE HALL BUILDING

The Deggendorf Institute of Technology was one of the first Bavarian universities, which made it possible for renowned companies to name a lecture hall after the company name, thus anchoring this name with the students at an early stage. The funds are mainly used to finance cultural events at the university. In addition, there is the possibility to setting up a glass showcase with exhibits.

Depending on the size; annually: € 2,000.00 - 10,000.00 plus VAT

DIT is working on the vision of a centre for digitalisation that is extremely closely linked to the economy. Here, research and teaching will take place on topics that are currently important for the German economy and for the region in particular.

Meeting with the President possible on request.

ENDOWED PROFESSORSHIP

It is possible to endow a professorship for the scientific promotion of special fields. The professorship is integrated into the regular teaching and offers scope for research.
